Firefighter I

Learning Agreement

NYS firefighter I is designed to prepare entry-level firefighters to respond to emergencies. This course is designed to accomplish the objectives of NFPA 1001 and NFPA 472 and trains the entry level firefighter as an interior structural firefighter in accordance with OSHA regulations 1910.156 Fire Brigade Standard, 1910.134 Respiratory Standard, 1910.120 Emergency Response to Hazardous Materials, 1910.146 Confined Space Entry Standard and 1910.147 Control of Hazardous Energy Standard.

This course is 87 hours in length, plus 16 hours for hazardous materials, which is broken up into #32 lessons, which will be accomplished in night and weekend sessions. Tests and measurements are a necessary element in the learning process.

Student Attendance:

All sessions must be attended. In the event of an unavoidable absence, the student shall notify the lead instructor. The student may have to make up the class in order to pass the course.

Student Obligations:

Students are provided with a copy of the Firefighter I outline. Students shall have completed the required reading and be prepared for unit tests, and to participate in discussions. All students shall bring with them to class: complete up to date personal protective equipment, writing instrument and paper unless otherwise indicated by the instructor. Must complete the ICS-100 self-study and provide proof of completion to the instructor prior to the completion of the class. The ICS test can be obtained from the instructor or through the OFPC website.

All students will abide by the rules set forth by the instructor regarding the use of any electronic devices during the class. ie: cell phones, pagers, tablets,etc.

Written Exams:

All students will be given at least 2 written exams. The midterm exam is conducted in lesson #13, and the final exam at the end of the course. Both exams have a passing grade of 70% or better. All students must pass these two exams to receive credit for the course. If a student fails any of the written tests, then they will be allowed to make it up at the convenience of the instructor. If not, they will have to retake the exam in another class.

Practical Skills Evaluations:

All students will be given skills during various times during the program. Every student is expected to pass all skills. If a student fails a skill, the instructor may elect to provide a make-up for that particular skill.

Physical Fitness:

All students must be fit enough to safely complete skills. Students must have been determined to be fit for firefighting and must have received a fit test for the equipment that they are using in the course. Students will be training in an IDLH atmosphere during the course.
